Illustrators:

Peace is...

Sharing what we have with others.

What could you share at school?

Peace is...

Using our words, not our hands, when we are upset.

What can you say when someone upsets you?

Peace is...

Working together and helping each other.

What can you do to help your classmates and teacher?

Peace is...

Trying to find a compromise so everyone is happy.

What does it mean to compromise?

Peace is...

Accepting we are all unique and different, yet similar in many ways too!

How are we the same?

Peace is...

Making amends if you make a mistake or hurt someone else.

What can you do or say to let others know you are sorry?

Peace is...

Caring for each other as much as possible!

How can you show your classmates, teachers and the rest of the school that you care?

My name is _____.

To me, peace is...
